MALAYSIAN TAX CONFERENCE 2019

Malaysia Baru's Tax Reform Agenda—What's Next?

KEYNOTE ADDRESS BY

YBHG. DATO' SRI SABIH SAMITAH
Chief Executive Officer,
Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia

3 & 4 April 2019 (Wednesday & Thursday),
Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre

Malaysia Baru has embarked on a long-overdue tax reform agenda, guided by the Tax Reform Committee established in October 2018. The essence of tax reform is the undertaking of a holistic review of the national tax system in assisting to broaden the tax base and reduce the crippling national debt, while supporting economic growth and social wellbeing.

The Malaysian Tax Conference 2019 will focus on the likely reforms and innovations geared to creating a more business-friendly tax ecosystem, with leading tax experts discussing pressing issues such as direct and indirect taxes, transfer pricing, governance and collaborative regulations, standards, dispute resolutions and taxpayer rights.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Tax Practitioners
- Tax Managers
- Tax Agents
- Tax Advisors/Consultants
- Chief Financial Officers
- Finance Directors
- Heads of Finance Department
- Accountants

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

- Provide thought leadership on tax reform and enhancing the tax system in Malaysia.
- Discuss the issues and challenges on tax dispute and ways to reduce and resolve them.
- Learn to leverage technology as part of the tax governance and controls to improve the tax function.
- Create and support new growth through innovation and implementing a business-friendly environment and tax eco-system.
- Gain practical knowledge on the implications of the tax and accounting reporting standards.
- Learn and review the findings and outcomes of the recent tax cases and best practical solutions.
- Keep abreast with the latest issues and crucial updates on transfer pricing.
- Formulate sound policy bases to develop and safeguard taxpayer rights and the client charter for the future tax system in Malaysia.
